

Carry out risks assessment of potential areas of corruption

All employees have related to or may have the power, using their affected to make someone else perform a function or operating (action or inaction) in an improper way.
